The Ascension of the Lord

Seventh Sunday of Easter

Effective since 2022, the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord has been permanently transferred from Thursday of the Sixth Week of Easter to the following Sunday, the Seventh Sunday of Easter, in all Catholic dioceses in New Jersey. This year, the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord is observed on Sunday, May 12 This liturgical observance is an integral dimension of the completion of Our Lord's paschal mystery and, after much discussion, the Catholic Bishops of New Jersey collectively discerned that the transferring the observance to the following Sunday would allow for greater participation among the faithful.

WEDNESDAY HOLY HOUR

after 8:35AM Mass
Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament
On the Main Altar of the Church.

READINGS FOR NEXT WEEKEND

Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11
1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13
John 20:19-23

A PRAYER FOR ALL MOTHERS

We come before You, Lord,
and lift up in prayer all mothers, living and deceased;
godmothers, grandmothers, stepmothers mothers to be, and all women who love and guide young people as teachers, coaches, counselors and mentors.

We give you thanks for their presence,
talents and gifts which they share in our church,
society and world.

May all mothers know of Your loving and gentle presence and may they always turn towards You in times of joy, sorrow and glory.

We ask this in Your Name. Amen.

Happy Mother's Day!

This Week in Prayer, Service & Community

Dear All, Christ's Easter Peace!

Mark your calendars for Parish Spring Palooza – Thursday, June 27 from 5:30 to 8:00 pm. Celebrate the end of school and the start of summer. This year's theme? Parish Hoedown!

Bishop Checchio Is Coming to Dedicate the Pavilion – Mark your calendars for the 11:30 Mass on Pentecost Sunday, May 19 at 11:30. And pray for good weather!!

Fantastic News about Harrison! – For the last two years we have prayed at every weekend Mass for our much beloved young parishioner Harrison C. Harrison has been battling leukemia and last week received great news that his progress is brilliant, his treatments are over, and his port is coming out! Thank God!

Community Blood Bank – Harrison's family has been sponsoring a blood drive and is continuing to do so. This year's is on Saturday, June 1 at Hillsborough Elementary School. See the flyers for information about signing up and donating.

Hillsborough Food Bank – Thank you for your great support of the Hillsborough Food Bank. Last week they indicated that they are short on coffee, jelly, ketchup, mayo, mustard, peanut butter, pickle slices, relish, laundry detergent, deodorant, dish soap, razors, shampoo & conditioner, and toothbrushes. Can you help?

St. Vincent DePaul Food Pantry – The St. Vincent DePaul Food Pantry Ministry (Perth Amboy) needs extra help this summer, when it is harder to round up volunteers to assist our food-insecure neighbors. Can you help the pantry once or twice? Just email Terry at terrytulee25@gmail.com.

Young Families UPCOMING – Mark your calendars for our next two "Growing Families" gatherings: Saturday, May 18 for sunflower planting and garden exploration, and Saturday, June 8 for garden work and craft day. Stay tuned for details. Questions? Email Liz at eloughlin@sjmillstone.com.

First Friday Birthday Breakfasts Are Back! – After a long, pandemic hiatus, the First Friday Birthday Breakfasts are returning. The first one will be on Friday, June 7. As always, right after the 8:35 Mass.

Young Adults Chill Time – Are you between the ages of 21 and 35, and would like to get to know other young, dynamic Catholic parishioners? In addition to hanging with other parishioners, it is a time to discuss the ministry's future direction. Email Josh at jhuang@sjmillstone.com. Also, mark your calendars for get-together at Flounders on June 6, and the bonfire on July 13.

With all best blessings,

Father Hank

BABY BOTTLE FUNDRAISER

The Knights of Columbus and The Respect Life Ministry are conducting a Baby Bottle Fundraiser for The Center for Great Expectation on the weekends of May 5 and 12. The bottles, with donations, should be returned on the weekends of May 19 and 26. You may also donate directly using this QR code. Thank You.

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

If you have registered in the last 6 months or plan to register soon, please join us for our New Parishioner Welcome on Sunday, May 19 in the Hospitality Room right after the 11:30 mass (approx. 12:30). Come and meet your fellow parishioners, enjoy a lite lunch, listen to a brief information session, and find ways to become an integral member of our parish community.

MAY CRIB COLLECTION

The collection crib will be in the Gathering Space from May 11 - June 2. Please consider donating some of the goods that new moms need most – especially bottles, diapers, baby wipes, toiletries, baby formula, and layettes. Toddler clothing (may be gently used) is greatly needed for children up to age five. Our volunteers have been enjoying sorting and distributing these wonderful items to those moms in most need.

Thank you!

Thoughts From God's Garden

Sr. Gabriela of the Incarnation, O.C.D.

The Color of Silence

Since I was a child, I have been fascinated by color wheels, those colored circles with the shades of the rainbow surrounding the central pole that you spin like a top. At rest, the various colors march around the pole, following each other on the flat surface of the circle, but when you spin the top fast enough, all the colors blur into a single shade of white. It is very intriguing! White seems like the opposite of color. It doesn't look like a color at all, and yet when you spin a color wheel, you find that it contains all the other colors in itself.

St. John of the Cross wrote, "The Father spoke one Word, which was his Son, and this Word he speaks always in eternal silence, and in silence must it be heard by the soul." The Father speaks one single Word, an infinite, silent Word, that contains all other words in Itself. So silence is like the color white: as white contains all colors, God's silence contains the one Word that is the perfect expression of infinite love.

WORD OF THE WEEK

Numerology \nū-mə-ˈrā-lə jē\

The biblical idea, common in the ancient world, that numbers hold mystical significance. The clue to interpreting the hidden meaning of a text was often in appreciating the numbers associated with it.

Pronunciation: <https://tinyurl.com/Take5-numerology>

CONTEXT

Numbers have immutable rules not instituted by men but discovered.

—Saint Augustine

These angels [in Revelation chapter 1] are seven angels of high rank. The number seven here may show a connection with the seven planets, which in John's time were held to be heavenly beings.

—Adela Yarbro Collins, The Apocalypse

The number 1,000 in early Hebrew traditions . . . often meant simply a number too great to be counted.

—John McKenzie, S.J., Dictionary of the Bible

WHY IT MATTERS

Significant numbers often recur in the Bible. Knowing that the number three stands for completeness, four for totality, seven for the divine realm, 12 for the whole people helps us understand the biblical narratives in which they appear.

From The Collegeville Pastoral Dictionary of Biblical Theology: In its use of numbers the Bible often attaches a symbolic value that demands an understanding on the part of the interpreter of the connotation of numbers. The Bible is not an exact timetable that predicts the precise occurrence of future events.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Who are the Twelve?

The Twelve are listed in the Gospels of Mark, Matthew, Luke, and the Acts of the Apostles. The listings betray a hierarchy. Four names top every list: brothers Simon Peter and Andrew and Zebedee's sons James and John. The next grouping is shuffled but consistent: Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, and Thomas. The surprise is Bartholomew, who never speaks. The final four are James, son of Alphaeus; Thaddeus or Judas, son of James; Simon the Zealot; and Judas Iscariot, the least esteemed.

The Gospel of John refers to the Twelve only twice and never lists them. Andrew, Peter, Philip, and Nathanael are the original recruits. Nathanael? Since Philip recruits Nathanael, and Philip is paired with Bartholomew elsewhere, the idea that Nathanael is Bartholomew is suggested. John gives Zebedee's sons only a vague post-Resurrection nod. John favors other followers: Nicodemus; Mary, Martha, and Lazarus of Bethany; Mary Magdalene, Joseph of Arimathea, and an unnamed "beloved" disciple. After Easter, Luke says, Matthias replaces Judas. The symbolic authority of the Twelve lasts for a generation. As each is martyred, none is replaced.

—Alice Camille, from Questions Catholics Ask <http://tinyurl.com/QCA-twelve-apostles>

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

FEAST OF MATTHIAS, APOSTLE (MAY 14)

Apostle of the bench warmers

Matthias followed Jesus from his Baptism to his death, yet he wasn't originally one of the Twelve. Then he won the lottery to replace Judas, and he spread the gospel for years before he suffered a martyr's death. Clement of Alexandria said Matthias, like all the other apostles, was not chosen for what he already was, but for what he could become. Isn't that true for all of us?

READINGS: Acts 1:15-17, 20-26; John 15:9-17 (564 <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/051424.cfm>). "The lot fell upon Matthias, and he was counted with the Eleven Apostles."

FAITH IN ACTION

We all play different roles, but the call for each of us is the same: to follow Jesus in the lives we live.
